Addendum to Acceptable Use Policy for Computing
May, 2008

Supplementary to the St. Lawrence College Acceptable Use Policy for Computing dated February 2005, the School of Applied Science and Computing and the School of Skilled Trades and Tourism add the following criteria:

- (i) In addition to the User Responsibilities outlined in Section 3.1 1(a.)(c):

A user who violates this policy and makes his/her account available to others shall be fully responsible for all actions undertaken by the other person(s);

- (ii) Expand the User Restrictions outlined in Section 3.2. (6)(a):

Users must not attempt to deny other users access to computer systems through excessive use of the system.

- (iii) Section 3.2. (7) may make the only following exception to the User Restrictions:

....except for legitimate academic reasons sanctioned by faculty.
